FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MIDWEST JAZZ FANS CAN FOREGO AIR FARE, FORGET WAITING UNTIL FALL FOR FIRST TASTE OF JAZZ, WITH SPRING 'JAZZ ON THE VINE' LINE-UP ALREADY BUTTONED UP

ELKHART LAKE, Wis. (Jan. 22, 2020) – Midwest fans of jazz will find this to be welcome news, especially in the grips of winter. The Osthoff Resort in Elkhart Lake, Wis., has just announced the line-up for its annual spring jazz festival, “Jazz on the Vine,” May 8-10, 2020, with some new performers joining fest favorites. Tickets are available by calling 844.566.4392. The full schedule is posted at www.JazzOnTheVine.net. Keep it an easygoing weekend getaway when you book a suite at The Osthoff, with reservations accepted online at www.Osthoff.com. All performances are held rain or shine on the tented grounds of the resort, with those views to the lake as mesmerizing as the music.

While there’s no disputing the allure of jazz festivals in Monterey or Newport, those require more than a few pennies-worth of airfare. And the Detroit, Chicago and Indy jazz fests don’t show up on calendars until late summer or early fall. Those are two selling points that the organizers of Jazz on the Vine are keen to bring to the attention of Midwest jazz fans, as they’ve been doing for 18 years now. The timing of the ticket announcement also synchs up nicely for jazz devotees looking for a Valentine’s gift for their sweetie.

Regulars to Jazz on the Vine will be interested to know of newcomers for 2020, including Marqueal Jordan who will be special guesting with Lindsey Webster, and Rebecca Jade who will be appearing with Eric Darius. Davina & the Vagabonds are making a return appearance after many years, having performed just once before at this fest. And the full Four80East band is back together, a first for Jazz on the Vine. Other top talent includes The Rippingtons featuring Russ Freeman, Peter White, and Rick Braun.

Gates open at 4:30 p.m. on Friday and at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday. Festgoers are invited to meet the musicians after their performances. On both evenings following the last performance, Marcell Guyton will be performing at Lola's on the Lake Restaurant & Lounge until 1:30 a.m.

More to Love About Jazz on the Vine - Mother's Day is Sunday of Fest Weekend

What nice timing that Sunday, May 10, is also Mother's Day, and there will be a special brunch from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. at Lola's on the Lake, again featuring live jazz music from Marcell Guyton.

Ticket Prices Stay the Same

Ticket prices are steady from last year, with one-day general admission $85, a two-day ticket $155, and preferred seating for the two-day package at $195, plus tax on all. That cost of admission also includes wine sampling, with more than 100 domestic and international wines being served. The Mother's Day Brunch is $35.95 per person plus tax and gratuity.
